WELCOME TO YOUR NEW HOME!

We are very certain that you will fall in love at first site! This wonderful home has been tenderly cared for, just for you. You will surely appreciate all of the fresh paint and updated carpet that is found throughout this home.

You will want to call this spacious 4 bedroom, 2.5 bath house, HOME! One of the first features that is sure to please is how this "Estates of Red Lion" home is situated on a quiet cul-de-sac, features a side loading two car garage and offers a fenced rear yard with a very nice patio.

What is not to like? The current owners have only called this special place home for a very short few years. Yet, they have taken exceptional care!

From the moment you walk through the front door you will surely appreciate the open two story foyer and beautiful hardwoods. These hardwoods also extend into the dining room. Both the dining and living room are very spacious and offer plenty of space for those that like to entertain, have a large family or just want the space.

The family room is wired for surround sound and features a stone fireplace that is gas operated. The large and bright eat in kitchen is awesome. There, you will find plenty of corian counters and just as much cabinet space, not to mention the pantry!

Upstairs..... need space? Bedrooms 2, 3, & 4..... beautiful carpets, lots of closet space and all the bedrooms are above average in size and feature a great lay out. The master bedroom is surely a place that you will begin to appreciate.....not too long after you move in. From the large open floor plan, to the cathedral ceiling, to the large walk in closet, the builder had you in mind. Lets not forget about the over sized master bathroom. This bathroom features a double sink, large shower and a large soaking tub. This bathroom is nearly as big as some rooms other builders dare to call a bedroom!

And for the basement, as you will see there are some beautifully finished areas.
